

Underneath

FEATURED EXHIBITION

Don't miss the brand new exhibition, Fragments of the Invisible: The René and Odette Delenne Collection of Congo Sculpture, and discover how in their original setting many of these pieces connected with the invisible world of deities or spirits. On view in the Kelvin and Eleanor Smith Foundation Exhibition Gallery.

TOURS

Fragments of the Invisible

5:30 p.m. Learn how African sculptures connected to the invisible world of deities and spirits with a tour of the new exhibition. Meet in KeyBank Lobby.

Underneath the Frame

7:30 p.m. Hear fascinating stories of the creation of some of CMA's most haunting works of art, and visit spots where paranormal activity has been reported in the museum's galleries. Meet in the rotunda.

PROGRAMS

In Search of the Truth (Truth Booth)

Ryan Alexiev, Jim Ricks, and Hank Willis Thomas

Step inside and share your truth. Your response will be recorded and may be uploaded to the web in the future. Follow the Truth Booth's travels around Cleveland using #CMAtruthbooth. Atrium.

Rust Belt Monster Collective

Watch the artists of the Rust Belt Monster Collective complete an original mural inspired by the exhibition Fragments of the Invisible in just four hours. Featuring artists Randy Crider, Tim Switalski, Erin Schechtman, Craig Worrell, Ben Hale, and Jim Giar. Atrium.

Make it! Masks

Forgot your costume? No worries. Decorate masks inspired by Phantom of the Opera and works from the museum's collection. Atrium.

Art Cart: African Art

5:00–7:00 p.m. Touch Central and West African works of art from the museum's Education Art Collection. KeyBank Lobby.

Join us every first Friday for art, music, cocktails—something different every month.

Frame-Up CLE! Column & Stripe Insight Series

6:30 p.m. Meet Brian Jasinski from Grey Cardigan at the C&S table in the atrium and hear all about the Kickstarter campaign. Not a Column & Stripe member? Ask at the table for details. Atrium.

Secrets of the Hermès Carré

6:30 p.m. A demonstration of silk printing providing fascinating insight into the longstanding traditions and values of Hermès. Atrium.

Phantom of the Opera

7:30 p.m. The original 1925 version of the classic film, starring Lon Chaney as the disfigured musical genius of the hidden chambers and corridors beneath the Paris Opera House. Atrium.

Photo booth

Pics or it didn't happen! Grab some friends and a mask, and head to the photo booth. Atrium.

UPCOMING EVENTS

MIX: Miniatures

Friday, December 6, 5:00–9:00 p.m.

MIX goes pocket sized. Look closely to discover the grandeur of the miniature, and explore juxtapositions between portrait miniatures and their contemporary relatives.

Reservations recommended. Advance tickets $8; $10 day of event. Members free. Visit ClevelandArt.org/MIX.

MIX: Celebrate

Friday, January 3, 5:00–11:00 p.m.

We're closing in on the completion of the museum's monumental expansion and renovation project. Celebrate this historic moment with the first MIX of 2014, featuring the return of Solstice favorite DJ Rekha.

Reservations recommended. Members $7, $9 day of event; general public $14, $16 day of event.

Visit ClevelandArt.org/MIX.

NOT A MEMBER YET?

Join us and receive tickets to all upcoming MIX events and special exhibitions. Redeem your MIX tickets tonight toward the price of membership.